EDUCATION

- 2005 Doctor of Philosophy, University of Georgia—Anthropology
Dissertation: “Ethnoprimateology of Macaca tonkeana: The Interface of Primate Ecology, Human Ecology, and Conservation in Lore Lindu National Park, Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
Dissertation committee: Dr. Carolyn L. Ehardt (chair), Dr. J. Peter Brosius, Dr. Dorothy M. Fragaszy, and Dr. Irwin S. Bernstein
- 2005 Graduate Certificate in Conservation Ecology and Sustainable Development, Institute of Ecology, University of Georgia
- 1995 Bachelor of Arts, Beloit College—Anthropology (Minor: Behavioral Studies)
Phi Beta Kappa Scholar and graduated magna cum laude
Advisor: Dr. Nancy Krusko

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

- 2016 – present Professor of Anthropology, San Diego State University
- 2012 Invited Visiting Professor, Roma Tre University, Rome, Italy
- 2010 – 2016 Associate Professor of Anthropology, San Diego State University
- 2006 – 2010 Assistant Professor of Anthropology, San Diego State University
- 2005 – 2006 Post-doctoral Research Fellow, Behavioral Biology Lab, Institute for Mind & Biology, University of Chicago; Advisor: Dr. Dario Maestriperi
- 2005 – 2006 Research Associate, Advancing Conservation in the Social Context Project, Department of Anthropology, University of Georgia
- 2004 – 2005 Research Associate, SANREM (Sustainable Agriculture and Natural Resource Management) Phase II, University of Georgia
- 2002, 2005 Lecturer of Anthropology, University of Georgia

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- 2017 – present Co-investigator. Entomological assessment of the last primate malaria foci to inform malaria elimination, Sabang, Pulau Wey, Indonesia (in collaboration with Dr. Isra Wahid (PI) and Dr. Janet Cox Singh (co-PI).
- 2016 – 2017 Principal Investigator. The influence of life history and social network factors on moor macaque (Macaca maura) interactions with humans in Bantimurung-Bulusaraung National Park, Sulawesi, Indonesia (in collaboration with graduate student, Kristen Morrow).
- 2014 – 2015 Principal Investigator. Becoming together: Combining ethology and ethnography to explore the human-macaque interface during the process of habituation (in collaboration with graduate student, KT Hanson).
- 2014 – 2015 Principal Investigator. Life at the forest-farm edge: Exploring the ecological and nutritional correlates of crop raiding by moor macaque monkeys in Sulawesi, Indonesia (in collaboration with graduate student, Alison Zak).
- 2012 – 2013 Principal Investigator. The human-macaque interface along the Silver River, Florida: Interactions between boaters and free-ranging rhesus macaques (in collaboration with graduate student, Tiffany Wade, and Dr. Eben Kirksey, University of New South Wales).
- 2010 – 2011 Principal Investigator. The ecology of male-male relationships among moor macaque monkeys (Macaca maura) of Sulawesi, Indonesia.
- 2009 – 2010 Principal Investigator. Niche separation in sympatric Guizhou snub-nosed monkeys (Rhinopithecus brelichi) and Tibetan macaques (Macaca thibetana) in Fanjingshan Nature Reserve, China.
- 2008 – 2009 Principal Investigator. The nutritional and ethnomedicinal value of food resources of tonkean macaque monkeys living in human-modified habitats.
- 2005 – 2006 Principal Investigator. Post-doctoral research. The distribution and conservation status of the booted macaque (Macaca ochreata), Sulawesi, Indonesia (in collaboration with Postdoctoral advisor: Dr. Dario Maestriperi, University of Chicago).
- 2002 – 2004 Principal Investigator. Dissertation research. Ethnoprimateology of Macaca tonkeana: The interface of primate ecology, human ecology, and conservation in Lore Lindu National Park, Sulawesi, Indonesia.”

RESEARCH FUNDING

External Grants

- 2014 – 2015 Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research ($19,150). Project title: “Becoming Together: Combining Ethology and Ethnography to Explore the Human-Macaque Interface during the Process of Habituation.”
- 2014 – 2015 American Institute of Indonesian Studies, Henry Luce Award ($5,000). Project title: “Life At The Forest-Farm Interface: “Integrating Ecology, Primatology, and Ethnography to Mitigate Crop Raiding by Endangered Moor Macaques in Sulawesi, Indonesia.”

- 2012 – 2013 National Geographic Society, Waitt Grant ($14,932). Project title: “The Human-Macaque Interface along the Silver River, Florida: Interactions between Boaters and Free-Ranging Rhesus Macaques.”
- 2009 – 2010 San Diego Zoo Global, Institute for Conservation Research ($8,575), with Amanda (Sheres) Ellwanger (co-PI). Project title: “Primate Community Ecology in Fanjingshan National Nature Reserve, China.”
- 2006 – 2007 Primate Conservation, Inc., Maestriperi (PI) and Riley EP (co-PI) ($2,600). Project title: “The Sulawesi Macaque Conservation Project.”
- 2002 – 2004 National Science Foundation, Physical Anthropology Program ($10,000), Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant. C. Ehardt (PI) and E.P. Riley (co-PI). Project title: “Ethnoprimateology of Macaca tonkeana: The Interface of Primate Ecology, Human Ecology, and Conservation in Lore Lindu National Park, Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
- 2002 – 2004 Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research, Dissertation Fieldwork Grant ($14,448), support for doctoral research (see above)
- 2002 – 2004 Wildlife Conservation Society, ($8,800), Research Fellowship, support for doctoral research (see above)
- 2002 – 2003 American Society of Primatologists, Conservation Grant ($1,200), support for doctoral research (see above)
- 2001 Foreign Language and Area Studies Grant, Bahasa Indonesia, Southeast Asia Studies Summer Institute, University of Wisconsin-Madison (course fee & living stipend)

Internal (University-Based) Funding

- 2019 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Microgrant ($500). Project title: Developing a conservation education tool to inspire empathy and action to protect primates
- 2018 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Microgrant ($500). Project title: Growing up with people: The impact of human-macaque interactions on the social network and life history development of juvenile moor macaques in South Sulawesi, Indonesia
- 2017 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Microgrant ($500). Project title: “The human-nonhuman primate interface: Assessing the risk of malaria transmission from macaque monkeys to people on Wey Island, Indonesia.”
- 2017 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Critical Thinking Grant (course release)
- 2016 – 2017 San Diego State University, President’s Leadership Fund ($11,550). Project title: “Living with Others: Toward the Sustainable Co-Existence of Humans and Primates in Sulawesi, Indonesia.”

- 2016 – 2017 San Diego State University, University Grant Program Award ($9,992). Project title: “The Influence of Life History and Social Network Factors on Moor Macaque (Macaca maura) Interactions with Humans in Bantimurung-Bulusaraung National Park, Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
- 2015 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Critical Thinking Grant (course release)
- 2014 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Microgrant ($500). Project title: “The Human-Nonhuman Primate Interface: Combining Ethology and Ethnography to Explore the Process of Habituation.”
- 2014 – 2015 San Diego State University, University Grant Program Award ($9,991). Project title: “Life at the Forest-Farm Edge: Exploring the Ecological and Nutritional Correlates of Crop Raiding by Moor Macaque Monkeys in Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
- 2013 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Microgrant ($475). Project title: “Mitigating Crop Raiding Behavior by Moor Macaques in South Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
- 2013 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Critical Thinking Grant (course release)
- 2012 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Microgrant ($425). Project title: “Collaborative Research on the Human-Macaque Interface in South Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
- 2011 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Critical Thinking Grant, Riley EP (course release)
- 2011 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Microgrant ($400). Project title: “The Ecology of Male-Male Relationships among Moor Macaque Monkeys (Macaca maura) of Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
- 2010 – 2011 San Diego State University, University Grant Program Award ($9,960). Project title: “The Ecology of Male-Male Relationships among Moor Macaque Monkeys (Macaca maura) of Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
- 2010 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Microgrant ($150). Project title: “The Ecology of Male-Male Relationships among Moor Macaque Monkeys (Macaca maura) of Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
- 2009 San Diego State University, College of Arts & Letters Critical Thinking Grant, Riley EP (course release)
- 2008 – 2009 San Diego State University, University Grant Program Award ($9,971). Project title: “The Nutritional and Ethnomedicinal Value of Food Resources of Tonkean Macaque Monkeys Living in Human-Modified Habitats.”
- 2007 San Diego State University, Office of International Programs, Faculty Travel Grant ($3,500). Project title: “The Development of a Field School in Methods in Ethnoprimateology in Sulawesi, Indonesia.”
- 2004 – 2005 University of Georgia Graduate School, Dissertation Completion Award ($15,000)

- 2002 University of Georgia, Department of Anthropology, Melissa Hague Field Study Award ($700). Project title: "Ethnoprimateology of Macaca tonkeana: The Interface of Primate Ecology, Human Ecology, and Conservation in Lore Lindu National Park, Sulawesi, Indonesia."

HONORS, FELLOWSHIPS, AWARDS

- 2012 National Society of Collegiate Scholars, SDSU Chapter, Distinguished Member Award
- 2005 Warren G. Kinzey Student Presentation Award of the Primate Behavior and Biology Interest Group, American Association of Physical Anthropologists.
- 1995 Phi Beta Kappa Scholar, Beloit College, Wisconsin
- 1994 Summer Intramural Research Training Award (IRTA) Fellowship, National Institute of Health, Laboratory of Comparative Ethology, National Institute of Child Health and Development, Poolesville, MD; Riley EP.

- 2002 E.P. Riley. Ethnoprimateology—Linking primate and human ecology: Toward concerted negotiation in Conservation. Paper presented at Society for Applied Anthropology, 62nd Annual Meeting, Atlanta, GA.
- 2001 E.P. Riley. Human-macaque interactions in Lore Lindu National Park, Sulawesi: Implications for the conservation of Macaca tonkeana. Poster presented at the 18th Congress of the International Primatological Society, Adelaide, Australia, January 2001.

Invited Discussant Presentations at Scholarly Conferences

- 2014 Riley, E.P. Primates in Anthropogenic Landscapes: Ecology, Behavior, and Conservation [session discussant]. 25th Biannual Congress of the International Primatological Society.
- 2013 Riley, E.P. Nonhuman Primates in Human-Modified Habitats: Explorations in Ethnoprimateology [session discussant]. 82nd Annual Meeting of the American Association of Physical Anthropologists.

Invited Papers and Colloquia

- 2019 New York Academy of Sciences, New York, 2019-2020 Distinguished Lecturer Series. “Ethnoprimateology: Toward the Sustainable Coexistence of Human and Nonhuman Primates in the 21st Century.”
- 2019 San Diego Zoo Global, Advanced Inquiry Program Lecture Series. “The Human-Primate Interface: Conservation Implications.”

- 2018 Hasanuddin University, Sulawesi, Indonesia, Seminar on Field-friendly sampling and state-of-the-art omics techniques for pre-empting pathogen emergence at the human-wildlife interface. “The behavior and ecology of Macaca spp. and their interface with humans in Indonesia.”
- 2017 UNESCO-Mexico, International Forum on Primatology, Biocultural Diversity, and Sustainable Development in Tropical Forests. “Conservation Implications of the Human-Primate Interface: Toward Tolerance and Sustainable Coexistence.”
- 2017 San Diego Zoo Global, Institute for Conservation Research, Seminar Series. “The Human-Macaque Interface in Indonesia and Florida, US: Toward Tolerance and Sustainable Coexistence.”
- 2017 California State University – Northridge, Keith Morton Memorial Lecture. “The Promise of Contemporary Primatology: Advancing the Study of the Human-Nonhuman Primate Interface in the 21st Century.”
- 2017 University of Texas – San Antonio, Invited Lecture. “The Promise of Contemporary Primatology: Advancing the Study of the Human-Nonhuman Primate Interface in the 21st Century.”
- 2017 Phi Beta Kappa, San Diego State University, 51st Faculty Lecture. “The Promise of Contemporary Primatology: Toward the Sustainable Coexistence of Human and Nonhuman Primates in the 21st Century.”
- 2016 San Diego Zoo Global, Advanced Inquiry Masters Program, Guest Lecture. “Living with others: Toward sustainable co-existence of humans and primates in Indonesia and Florida.”
- 2015 San Diego State University, Department of Biology, Seminar Series. “Conquering the world, together: Exploring the interface between humans and macaque monkeys in Indonesia and Florida.”
- 2015 San Diego State University Research Foundation, PI Lecture Series. “Conquering the world, together: Exploring the interface between humans and macaque monkeys in Indonesia and Florida.”
- 2015 Central Washington University, Department of Anthropology, Primate Awareness Week Keynote Speaker. “Living with others: Exploring the human-alloprimate interface in Indonesia and Florida.”
- 2015 Tulane University, Department of Anthropology, Invited talk. “The human-alloprimate interface: Expanding primatology’s contribution to anthropology.”
- 2015 San Diego State University, Discovery Slam Series, Invited talk. “Living with others: Exploring the human-primate interface in Indonesia and Florida.”
- 2014 USAID @america program, Jakarta, Indonesia, Invited talk. “Ethnoprimateology: Exploring the human-primate interface in Indonesia.”
- 2014 Washington University, Department of Anthropology, Invited talk. “The Human-Primate Interface: Expanding Primatology’s Contribution to Anthropology.”

- 2014 University of California, San Diego, Department of Anthropology, Invited talk. "What counts as "natural"?: Exploring the human-primate interface along the Silver River, Florida."
- 2014 National Geographic Society, NGS/Waite grantee "Closer Look " talk. "Thriving, naturally! Florida's rhesus macaques and their interface with humans along the Silver River."
- 2013 University of Santa Clara, Department of Anthropology, Invited talk. "What counts as 'natural'?: Exploring the human-primate interface in Indonesia and Florida."
- 2013 University of South Florida, Department of Anthropology, Invited talk. "Exploring the Human-Nonhuman Primate Interface along the Silver River, Florida."
- 2012 San Diego Museum of Man, Adventures in Photography Lecture Series, Photography, Fieldwork, and the Anthropological Experience. "Adventures in Field Primatology."
- 2011 San Diego Museum of Man, Invited panelist, "Et tu, Governor Scott?"
- 2011 San Diego Zoo Institute for Conservation Research Seminar Series. "Food for Thought: Using Primate Nutritional Data to Inform Conservation Management in Sulawesi, Indonesia."
- 2011 Arcus Foundation, Invited talk, Human-Ape Interface Roundtable, "From Forests to Gardens, and the Monkeys in Between: Seeking Ways to Engender Respect and Coexistence."
- 2010 San Diego Audubon Society, Invited talk, "Food for Thought: Using Nutritional Data to Help Mitigate Human-Monkey Conflict in Sulawesi, Indonesia."
- 2008 University of California, San Diego, Department of Anthropology Colloquium series. "The Anthropology of Monkeys, Forests and Protected areas in Upland Sulawesi."
- 2008 San Diego Museum of Man, 12 o'clock Scholar Seminar Series. "The Macaques of Wallacea: Conservation Status in a Biodiversity Hotspot."
- 2007 San Diego Zoological Society Conservation and Research for Endangered Species (CRES) Seminar Series. "Whose Woods are These?: Human-Macaque Overlapping Resource Use in Sulawesi, Indonesia."
- 2007 Southern California Primate Research Forum, San Diego State University, Nov 10th, 2007. "The Endemic seven: Conservation Status of the Sulawesi Macaques."
- 2007 San Diego State University, Department of Geography Colloquium Series. "Overlapping Resource Use between Humans and Macaques in Sulawesi, Indonesia."
- 2007 University of California, San Diego, Seminar in Biological Anthropology. "Linking Primate Ecology, Human Ecology, and Conservation in Sulawesi."

TEACHING EXPERIENCE & EFFECTIVENESS

Courses Taught (Undergraduate & Graduate)

- Anthropology of Food and Eating
- Ethnoprimateology Methods
- Exploring Primate Behavior
- Graduate Seminar in Biological Anthropology
- Graduate Seminar in Primate Conservation
- Graduate Seminar in Anthropological Research and Proposal Development
- Honors Introduction to Anthropology
- Human Biocultural Origins

Observing Primate Behavior
 Primate Behavioral Ecology
 Principles of Biological Anthropology
 Primate Conservation
 The Nonhuman Primates

Teaching Awards

2014 Most Influential Professor Award, Department of Anthropology, SDSU
 2007 Most Influential Professor Award, Department of Anthropology, SDSU

Evidence of Successful Student Mentoring

Joshua Trinidad (undergraduate), Provost's Award for Best Poster Presentation, 2017 SDSU Student Research Symposium
Kristen Morrow (graduate student), President's Award, 2017 SDSU Student Research Symposium
Kristen Morrow (graduate student), 2nd place Social and Behavioral Sciences, 2017 CSU Student Research Symposium
Amanda Ellwanger (graduate student), President's Award, 2010 SDSU Student Research Symposium
